Respected Sir,

Greetings !

Recently on November 9, 2020 we all celebrated National Legal Services Day across India also marking completion of 25 years of Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987. I congratulate to you and NALSA/SLSAs.

As we all aware about the present situation of legal services provided under the said act, there is lot to do in this sphere implementing various strategies and policies. Looking at this on November 9, I wrote a blog "Revamping Legal Aid Services System in India" highlighting various issues and challenges alongwith some possible solutions to improve legal services delivery. Here is the link to access <http://probono-india.in/blog-detail.php?id=191>. Look forward to your comments/views on this.

I am writing this letter drawing your attention to the fact that all State Legal Services Authorities across India are having their dedicated web portals mentioning all important details on it except website of Gujarat State Legal Services Authority (GSLSA) (<http://gujarathighcourt.nic.in/gslsa>). This existing url which is an extension to Gujarat High Court which provides hardly any details. There is a serious need of dedicated website of GSLSA, providing all upto date information like other states' websites. I request you and your office to direct Gujarat High Court and GSLSA to come up dedicated website in coming days to fulfill the objective of Access to Justice to the some extent considering timely and correct information is backbone of any government machinery.

Look forward to have immediate action from you on above matter.

Regards
